How do you typically resolve a conflict with someone?

Who did you quarrel with most while growing up?

Read James 3:13-18

James starts this passage with a question: “Who is wise among you?”

How can you recognize a wise person?

What does James say is the evidence of wisdom?

How does James characterize “earthly wisdom?”

What is the result of “earthly wisdom?” Where does it lead?

How does James describe “heavenly wisdom?” How does a wise person act?

What does “heavenly wisdom” produce?

The word “life” in the phrase “good life” in James 3:13 means “upside down.” James is telling us to act in an “upside down” way, an “opposite” way of the world.

How are the behaviors of “heavenly wisdom” opposite of the behaviors of “earthly wisdom?”

What behaviors do you need to change to reflect “heavenly wisdom” vs “earthly wisdom?”

What can you do this week to “sow peace” into a relationship (James 3:18)?
